

A MEETING WAS HELD AT THE MEJLIS OF TURKMENISTAN WITH VICE PRESIDENT OF THE OSCE PARLIAMENTARY ASSEMBLY

On April 1, 2024, a meeting was held between the Chairperson of the Mejlis of Turkmenistan, Dunyagozel Gulmanova and vice-president and head of the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe Parliamentary assembly Reinhold Lopatka.

During the meeting, the Chairperson of the Mejlis D.Gulmanova noted that the development of cooperation with international organizations, including the OSCE, is one of the important areas of foreign policy, and cooperation with this organization is expanding in new directions.

At the meeting were discussed the key directions of the Global Security Strategy promoted by our country, as well as issues such as the use of instruments of diplomacy in resolving various international situations, the restoration of a culture of dialogue.

During the negotiations, it was emphasized that the activities of the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe closely contribute to ensuring peace and security throughout the world, joint discussion of important issues and the search for positive solutions.

MEJLIS OF TURKMENISTAN