

Cristiano Ronaldo's girlfriend Georgina Rodriguez had a "shopping day" with her kids.

She uploaded a picture collage on her Instagram story, that showed her and her children holding their newly-bought sunglasses and other shopping items.

Prior to this, Cristiano Ronaldo spent the best vacation with girlfriend Georgina Rodriguez following a high toll of game suspensions.

The couple of eight years enjoyed a luxury beach holiday at a mystery location with their five children Cristiano Jnr, 13, twins Eva and Mateo, six, Alana Martina, six, and two-year-old Bella, according to Hello magazine.

There are seven members in their family and Cristiano is well settled with Georgina. At a Gucci store in Madrid, he met Georgina in 2016 where she was working at, according to Sportskeeda.

The couple has been together for quite a while now and their relationship seems to be growing more as years pass by. Both of them are currently residing in Saudi Arabia.

Moreover, Portuguese player Cristiano Ronaldo is regarded as a modern-day great and one of the greatest athletes on this planet by his fans.