

Cristiano Ronaldo's partner Georgina Rodriguez shares glimpses of some fun moments with her daughters.

She shares a couple of Instagram Stories in which she can be seen sitting in a car while holding a bottle. In another image, she is making a peace sign as we can see her sneakers.

She also uploaded two separate videos of her daughters playing around with their adorable gestures.

Georgina Rodriguez has been consistently sharing cute moments with her children which makes it appear that she is having a great time with them.

Prior to this, she also enjoyed a shopping day with kids. She uploaded a picture collage on her Instagram story, that showed her and her children holding their newly-bought sunglasses and other shopping items.

Additionally, a few days back, Cristiano Ronaldo spent the best vacation with girlfriend Georgina Rodriguez following a high toll of game suspensions.

The couple of eight years enjoyed a luxury beach holiday at a mystery location with their five children Cristiano Jnr, 13, twins Eva and Mateo, six, Alana Martina, six, and two-year-old Bella, according to Hello magazine.

There are seven members in their family and Cristiano is well settled with Georgina. At a Gucci store in Madrid, he met Georgina in 2016 where she was working at and since then both of them are together, according to Sportskeeda.
