

On April 22, 2024, representatives of the Mejlis held a meeting with the Chairman of the Committee on Regional Policy and Self-Government of the Parliament of Georgia Kakha Kakhishvili, and members of the committee.

During the meeting, Kakhi Kakhishvili introduced the activities carried out to organize the activities of local self-government bodies in Georgia and strengthen the legislative basis for these activities, and also noted the great interest of the Parliament of Georgia in intensifying inter-parliamentary relations with Turkmenistan.

Representatives of the Mejlis of Turkmenistan introduced the system of local self-government of Turkmenistan, the activities carried out in the Mejlis of Turkmenistan to strengthen the legislative basis of their activities. At the end of the meeting, the parties exchanged views on issues of interest.

The delegation's familiarization visit to Georgia continues.

MEJLIS OF TURKMENISTAN