

The final stage of the creative festival «Talyp joşguny - 2024» among creatively passionate students of higher educational institutions of our country was held in the song and music centre «Ashgabat». The festival of creative inspiration of youth was attended by heads of public organizations, rectors of universities, teachers and students.

The «Talyp joşguny» festival is held annually by the Central Council of the Youth Organization of Turkmenistan named after Magtymguly together with the country's Ministry of Education. The event is aimed at identifying talented student youth, stimulating their creative activity, increasing interest in art, and widely popularizing national culture.

At the final stage of the creative festival, higher education institutions presented their creative teams and performers who won the internal selection stages, which were held in each of the universities in May. The festival participants demonstrated to the audience and fans their mastery in various forms of art – music, song, dance, folklore, stage, etc.

«Turkmenistan: Golden age»