

Turkmen company Nedir Gala and Austrian company Spak GmbH have signed a Memorandum of Understanding to begin cooperation on the production of ketchup and mayonnaise in Turkmenistan and to expand the export of these products to the European Union and Central Asia.

As reported by the Embassy of Turkmenistan in Austria last Wednesday, the Turkmen delegation signed the document during their official visit to Vienna, Austria, for the 12th Joint Turkmen-Austrian Commission meeting.

According to the report, Turkmen entrepreneurs participated in several site visits and meetings to develop bilateral cooperation and study innovative business and industrial practices.

Concluding the series of visits, economic society Döwrebap Ulag Merkezi held a meeting with Zoloto GmbH to establish partnership relations in logistics between Europe and Turkmenistan, aimed at optimizing and increasing the efficiency of logistics operations.

The agreements and partnerships are expected to expand technological exchange, increase production capacity and export, and make a significant contribution to the economic development of Turkmenistan.

