

Secondary and higher education institutions in Turkmenistan offer new specialties for the upcoming academic year 2024/2025. The entrance campaign is currently underway, running from 15 July to 26 August.

Seven universities are introducing a total of 12 new programs at the specialist, bachelor's, and master's levels:

Turkmen Agricultural University named after S.A.Niyazov:

- Economics and management of agriculture - master's degree programs
- Animal science - master's degree programs.

Turkmen State Pedagogical Institute named after Seyitnazar Seydi:

- Defectology - specialist and bachelor
- Pedagogical education (Chinese language and literature, Turkmen language and literature) - specialist and bachelor
- Pedagogical education (Persian language and literature, Turkmen language and literature) - specialist and bachelor.

Turkmen State Institute of Architecture and Civil Engineering:

- Standardization (specialist)
- Metrology and certification (in the industrial sector) (specialist)
- Seismology and earthquake-resistant construction (specialist).

Turkmen State Institute of Economics and Management:

- International Trade (bachelor).

Institute of Engineering, Technical and Transport Communications:

- Technical operation of aircraft and engines (bachelor)
- Technical operation of aircraft and radio electronic equipment (bachelor).

Institute of International Relations of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Turkmenistan:

- Master's Program in International Arbitration and Business Law

Turkmen State Institute of Culture:

- Master's Program in Cultural Studies

Four secondary vocational schools are also adding new programs to their curriculum, offering a total of 10 new specialties:

Ashgabat Indira Gandhi Medical School:

- Radiology

Dashoguz Agro-industrial Secondary Vocational School of the Turkmen Agricultural Institute:

- economics and organization of production
- economics and accounting
- digital economy
- land management and cadastres

Bayramali Agro-industrial Secondary Vocational School of S.A.Niyazov Turkmen Agricultural University:

- Veterinary pharmaceuticals
- Technology of food production.

Mary Oil and Gas Secondary vocational School of the State Concern "Türkmengaz":

- Installation and operation of internal plumbing devices, air conditioning and ventilation
- Measuring instruments and automation
- Welding production.