

The President of Turkmenistan has left on a working visit to the Republic of Kazakhstan

Today, on 9 August, President Serdar Berdimuhamedov left on a working visit to the Republic of Kazakhstan to participate in the sixth Consultative Meeting of the Heads of Central Asian states, as well as in the first Summit of the Central Asia-Japan Dialogue.

Consistently implementing a foreign policy course based on the principles of positive neutrality and peacefulness, our country stands for the development of multi-format constructive cooperation on a regional and global scale.

In this context, an illustrative example is the traditional relations with the States of Central Asia, with whom Turkmenistan shares common cultural and spiritual values, historical ties of friendship and good neighborliness.
