

In Ankara, a presentation of the book by the President of Turkmenistan took place

On November 29, at the headquarters of the International Organization TURKSOY in Ankara, a presentation of the book by the President of Turkmenistan, Serdar Berdimuhamedov, "Anau - Culture from the Depths of Millennia," published in Turkish, took place. This was reported by the press service of the Turkmen Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

Participants of the event emphasized the great significance of Serdar Berdimuhamedov's new work in studying and widely popularizing the glorious history and rich national cultural heritage. Speakers also noted the state's care for the rich history and culture of Turkmenistan.

Additionally, at the Ankara University building, the Embassy of Turkmenistan held a round table with the participation of representatives of Turkey's scientific intelligentsia. Scholars and writers from both countries discussed the enormous contribution of the eastern poet Magtymguly Pyragy's work to enriching the treasury of world literature and understanding the values of the Turkmen people.
