

On November 29, Deputy Chairman of the Cabinet of Ministers of Turkmenistan Nokerguly Atagulyev informed President Serdar Berdimuhamedov at a government meeting about the preparation of the country's trade complex for the celebration of Neutrality Day and New Year. This was reported by the electronic newspaper "Turkmenistan: Golden Age."

The Deputy Prime Minister emphasized that from December 5, festive trade will start in the markets and all stores in the cities and towns of the republic. Additionally, more than 850 mobile points selling consumer goods will open. In this regard, Atagulyev presented the corresponding proposal to the head of state.

Serdar Berdimuhamedov ordered comprehensive measures to meet the needs of the citizens of the republic. The President stressed the importance of adequately supplying markets and stores with all necessary food products.
