

During his working trip to the city of Arkadag, the National Leader of the Turkmen people, Chairman of the Halk Maslahaty, Gurbanguly Berdimuhamedov, stopped at the roundabout of Akhan and Kopetdag avenues.

After reviewing the construction progress of the roundabout and the monument at its center, the National Leader of the Turkmen people noted the appropriateness of naming it Taýçanak.

The steed symbolizes the fulfillment of wishes, and the rider who mounts it is expected to have a bright path ahead.

The Taýçanak monument harmoniously blends with the nearby village of horse breeders named after master-seyis Aba Annayev, as well as the stable for 600 Akhal-Teke horses.

Emphasizing that the Taýçanak monument should be visible from afar and make a favorable impression on people, Gurbanguly Berdimuhamedov noted that the construction should be carried out at the proper level, reports TDH.
