

On November 30, the administration of the city of Arkadag hosted the presentation of a new work by the National Leader of the Turkmen people, Gurbanguly Berdimuhamedow, titled "Hakyda göwheri" . The book is published in Turkmen and English.

The work consists of a "Preface" and two sections. The first section discusses the glorious past of the Turkmen people and the historical and cultural monuments preserved in the country. The second section is dedicated to the diversity of spiritual values that make up the nation's heritage. In creating the new book, Hero-Arkadag used his previously written works as well as information gathered from recently discovered historical findings.

Participants of the event noted that the new book is a pearl of wisdom from Hero-Arkadag, containing unique information about the glorious history and creative heritage of the people. The speakers congratulated the Chairman of the Halk Maslahaty on the publication of the new book and thanked him for his creative work.
