

On December 21, Deputy Chairman of the Cabinet of Ministers of Turkmenistan, Nokerguly Ataguliyev, reported to President Serdar Berdimuhamedov at a cabinet meeting about the national and international exhibitions, conferences, and business forums planned for the next year.

The Vice Premier emphasized that the upcoming events are aimed at informing the global community about Turkmenistan's achievements in various sectors and attracting investments and innovative technologies to the country's economy. Ataguliyev also presented the draft List of Planned Events for the President's consideration.

Serdar Berdimuhamedov approved the aforementioned list and gave the Vice Premier the necessary instructions. The President highlighted the importance of the work being done to widely publicize Turkmenistan's successes internationally and to expand trade and economic relations.
