

On December 4, the 11th exhibition of Turkish export goods began in Ashgabat. More than 70 companies and associations from the friendly country are participating in the event.

The exhibition features a wide range of products, including consumer goods, building materials, textiles, electronics, and engineering products. The exposition also offers the latest developments in construction technologies, renewable energy sources, medicine, and transport.

At the opening ceremony, Turkey's Minister of Trade, Omer Bolat, spoke. He emphasized the importance of such events for the development of trade and economic cooperation and the strengthening of relations between the two countries. According to the official, the exhibition will contribute to establishing business contacts, exchanging experiences, and expanding the presence of Turkish goods in the Turkmen market.
