

Representatives of the Ashgabat Secondary Vocational School of Tourism and the Vocational Technical School of Infocommunication of the Turkmenistan Institute of Telecommunications and Informatics are on a working visit to China. This was reported by the electronic newspaper "Turkmenistan: Golden Age."

The Turkmen delegates visited the Guangxi Vocational and Technical College, where they learned about training methods for production processes using robotics, VR, and AR technologies. Specialists from the republic also visited the Guangxi Institute of Electromechanics and Polytechnic in Nanjing.

During their stay in China, Turkmen specialists will visit the Railway Transport Vocational School in Luzhou and the Guilin Tourism University. The purpose of the trip is to participate in training activities within the framework of the Central Asian Regional Economic Cooperation (CAREC) program of the Asian Development Bank.
