

In Ashgabat, for classical music lovers, a concert titled “Winter Tale” will be held on January 12 with a unique program composed of works by Russian composers. The event is organized by the honored artist of Turkmenistan, pianist Vladimir Mkrtumov, as reported by the news agency “Turkmenistan: Golden Age.”

The concert will feature pieces such as “Pictures at an Exhibition” by Modest Mussorgsky, “Three Tales” by Nikolai Medtner, “Tales of an Old Grandmother” by Sergei Prokofiev, and “Three Fragments from the Ballet ‘Petrushka’” by Igor Stravinsky.

Musical miniatures, exquisite and delicate compositions will transport listeners to the atmosphere of folk holidays filled with the spirit of New Year’s magic. The concert evening will be a wonderful opportunity to immerse oneself in the world of music, forget about everyday worries, and enjoy the masterpieces of classical art.