

Azerbaijan's Embassy participated in the international exhibition marking Diplomacy Day in Turkmenistan

The Embassy of Azerbaijan in Turkmenistan took part in the "Diplomacy Day" exhibition at the Institute of International Relations of Turkmenistan.

Guests were showcased books, brochures, photo postcards, souvenirs, and handicrafts highlighting Azerbaijan's history, culture, art, and tourism potential, along with products under the 'Made in Azerbaijan' brand.

Azerbaijan's Embassy participated in the international exhibition
marking Diplomacy Day in Turkmenistan

Additionally, 'The Epic of Eternity', dedicated to National Leader Heydar Aliyev published in Turkmen language, along with works of the great poet Nizami Ganjavi were presented to the exhibition participants.

Azerbaijan's Embassy participated in the international exhibition
marking Diplomacy Day in Turkmenistan

The exhibition featured banners highlighting key insights about COP29, and a video clip detailing the achievements and chronological statistical data achieved at COP29 was also screened.

Azerbaijan's Embassy participated in the international exhibition marking Diplomacy Day in Turkmenistan

The event also showcased Azerbaijan's national costumes and featured a presentation of the tourism platform Azerbaijan.travel. Guests were introduced to the rich culinary heritage of the country and treated to a selection of traditional dishes and sweets.

The Deputy Chairman of the Cabinet of Ministers and Minister of Foreign Affairs of Turkmenistan, Rashid Meredov, along with government officials and diplomatic representatives, visited the Azerbaijani stand. The exhibition guests showed great interest in the booth of Azerbaijan.