

Baku, the capital and largest city of Azerbaijan, is located on the eastern shore of the Caspian Sea. The city is famous for its historical and cultural heritage and is considered one of the most unique cities in the world. Here is some interesting information for future tourists who might visit this city.

Pride of the Inner City

The oldest part of Baku, the Inner City (Icherisheher), is rich with monuments included in the UNESCO World Heritage list. The historical buildings and old streets here are great places to feel the past. The Palace of the Shirvanshahs and the Maiden Tower are the main monuments worth seeing in this part of the city. Walking through the narrow streets of the Inner City, you can feel the history of Baku.

Modern Splendor

Baku is also known for its modern architecture. Independence Avenue is filled with modern architectural structures and amazing shops. The Flame Towers are one of the main features of the city with their unique design and night illumination. Independence Avenue and other new buildings in the city showcase the wonders of modern architecture.

The capital of Azerbaijan, Baku, is also known as a location for numerous film shootings. The city's unique architecture, historical sites, and beauty make it an ideal place for movie productions. Here are some famous international and Azerbaijani films shot in Baku:

- “The World Is Not Enough” (1999) The famous James Bond movie is known for its scenes shot in Baku. Some of the film's scenes were filmed on the city's oil platforms and other locations. This film significantly contributed to Baku's international recognition.

- “Ali and Nino” (2016) This film tells the story of Azerbaijan’s history and cultural heritage. Much of the film was shot in Baku, showcasing the city’s historical sites, old buildings, and streets. “Ali and Nino” played a major role in displaying Baku’s beauty and history.

- “The Diamond Arm” (1969) This Soviet comedy is known for its scenes shot in Baku. Some scenes of the film were shot on the city’s old streets and by the seaside. This film played a significant role in showcasing Baku’s beauty during the Soviet era.

- “The Cloth Peddler (Arshyn Mal Alan” (1945) This film was based on the famous Azerbaijani opera and is known for its scenes shot in Baku. Some scenes of the film were shot in the city’s old buildings and streets. This film played a significant role in showcasing Azerbaijan’s cultural heritage.

Baku, with its unique beauty and historical sites, serves as the filming location for numerous movies. These films significantly contributed to the international recognition of Baku and showcasing its beauty.

Water Sports and Recreation

Located on the shore of the Caspian Sea, Baku is an excellent place for water sports and recreation. The beaches and recreational zones on the city's coastline attract many tourists in the summer months. Swimming, enjoying the sunshine, and boat trips on the sea are popular recreational activities on the city's coastline.

Culture and Festivals

The city is famous for international cultural events and festivals. The international film festival, music events, and exhibitions held in the city attract guests from around the world. These events enrich the city with many cultural activities for both residents and guests.

Cuisine and Wonderful Azerbaijani Cuisine

It is famous for its delicious Azerbaijani cuisine. In the city restaurants, you can taste popular dishes such as pilaf, kebab, and kutab. Additionally, the city offers excellent examples of world cuisine.

Baku is a city that attracts with its historical and modern features. Visiting this city, you can feel its ancient and modern beauty and visit many interesting places.

How Citizens of Turkmenistan Can Obtain a Visa to the Republic of Azerbaijan

Citizens of Turkmenistan are required to obtain a visa in order to visit the Republic of Azerbaijan. There are two main methods of applying for a visa:

Through the Embassy of the Republic of Azerbaijan in Turkmenistan:

Citizens of Turkmenistan can apply for a visa to the Republic of Azerbaijan through the Embassy of the Republic of Azerbaijan in Ashgabat. For more detailed information and the necessary documents required for the visa application, please visit the official website of the Embassy <https://ashgabat.mfa.gov.az>

Electronic Visa (e-Visa):

Citizens of Turkmenistan are able to apply for an electronic visa e-Visa to the Republic of Azerbaijan through the official e-Visa portal. The application process can be completed by visiting the ASAN Visa Portal: <https://evisa.gov.az>

Registration After Arrival:

All visitors who intend to stay in the Republic of Azerbaijan for more than 15 days are required to register with the State Migration Service. The registration must be done at the place of residence within 15 days of arrival in the country. This registration is recorded electronically and is accessible through the electronic services section on the official website of the State Migration Service or directly at regional migration offices or ASAN Service centers.

This registration is mandatory even if a person has a valid e-visa. No government fee is charged for the registration of foreign nationals and stateless individuals at their place of residence. For further information, please refer to the official website of the State Migration Service: <https://www.migration.gov.az>

Hotels may provide this service, but however must request it in advance from hotel staff. Additionally visitors staying in apartments or private residences will need to register by independently.