

A memorandum of understanding is planned to be signed between Turkmenistan and the Turkish Trade Center in Baku, which provides for the opening of a pavilion representing Turkmenistan.

This was reported to "Report" by the director of the Turkish Trade Center, Yilmaz Okuklu.

According to him, a designated space has already been allocated for the Turkmenistan pavilion. As for Azerbaijan's pavilion, it will feature the Ministry of Economy, the Small and Medium Business Development Agency, as well as the Export and Investment Promotion Agency. In general, states are represented in the Turkish Trade Center through the mediation of embassies, he noted.

He emphasized that the opening of pavilions of Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Turkmenistan, Turkey, and Uzbekistan in the Turkish Trade Center will make a significant contribution to the development of trade and economic relations among Turkic states.
