

April 26, 2025 marked one of the most iconic football rivalries, El Clasico, as it unfolded in the final of the Spanish Cup between FC Barcelona and Real Madrid. The match took place at the La Cartuja stadium in Seville, showcasing a historic encounter filled with intense competition between the two sides.

Match Progress:

- First Half: Barcelona started strong and scored the opening goal through Jules Kounde. Real Madrid struggled to counter but could not score in the first half.
- Second Half: Real Madrid intensified their attacks and scored two goals. Ferran Torres secured an equalizer for Barcelona.
- Extra Time: Jules Kounde delivered another goal, clinching victory for Barcelona.

Outcome: Barcelona triumphed with a 3-2 scoreline, claiming the Spanish Cup. This victory added yet another remarkable chapter to the club's history.