

The joint statement of the two leaders opens a new era of regional cooperation

The President of the Republic of Azerbaijan, Ilham Aliyev, and the President of the Islamic Republic of Iran, Masud Pezeşkian, signed a joint statement aimed at strengthening cooperation between the two countries. This was reported by the Azerbaijani source Trend.az..

This document is considered an important step in expanding collaboration in political, economic, and cultural spheres, as well as ensuring regional stability. During the meeting of the two leaders, an agreement was reached on implementing joint projects in areas such as energy, transportation, and ecology.

The signed statement strengthens friendly relations between the two countries and opens new opportunities for regional cooperation.

Все права защищены

The joint statement of the two leaders opens a new era of regional cooperation

Все права защищены

save pdf date >>> 24.01.2026

The joint statement of the two leaders opens a new era of regional cooperation

Все права защищены

save pdf date >>> 24.01.2026

The joint statement of the two leaders opens a new era of regional cooperation

Все права защищены

save pdf date >>> 24.01.2026