

The meeting of the Chairperson of the Mejlis of Turkmenistan with the President of the Inter-Parliamentary Union took place

During a working visit to the Republic of Uzbekistan to participate in the 150th anniversary Assembly of the Inter-Parliamentary Union, the Chairperson of the Mejlis of Turkmenistan met with the President of the Inter-Parliamentary Union Tulia Akson.

The Chairperson of the Mejlis of Turkmenistan D. Gulmanova, having familiarized the leaders of the Inter-Parliamentary Union with the main directions of the country's peaceful humanitarian internal and external policy, invited them to take part in international events, including parliamentary events held in the country on the occasion of the 30th anniversary of the recognition of Turkmenistan's permanent Neutrality, celebrated in 2025 declared as the International Year of Peace and Trust by the United Nations on the initiative of Turkmenistan.

The President of the Inter-Parliamentary Union, in turn, highly appreciated Turkmenistan's active cooperation in the international arena and expressed great interest in the further development of bilateral cooperation and holding joint events.

At the end of the meeting, it was noted that meetings held by the Inter-Parliamentary Union are an effective platform for developing relations between member parliaments of this organization, exchanging experience in parliamentary work and discussing important contemporary issues.
