

Berdi Begmenov is one of Turkmenistan's prominent businessmen and creative personalities, known as the founder of the popular men's clothing brand "TM LIMITED". This brand combines high quality, style, and affordability, establishing itself as a leader in the men's clothing market.

In 2012, while still a student, Berdi Begmenov founded "TM LIMITED" for the first time. He purchased his first clothing batch in Istanbul and opened his first store. This initial venture was successful, and the brand's popularity grew rapidly. Today, "TM LIMITED" is renowned not only in Turkmenistan but also in several other countries.

The brand's achievements include creating frameworks for implementing the Paris Agreement, collecting data for planning in the water sector, and enhancing stakeholders' capabilities in tackling climate challenges. Additionally, the "TM LIMITED" brand is recognized as one of the top sellers on international platforms such as Wildberries.

Berdi Begmenov faced numerous challenges in his entrepreneurial journey. He had to restart his business several times, but these experiences fostered his creative thinking and ability to create new opportunities. Today, "TM LIMITED" not only produces clothing but also stands as a successful project that serves as an example for young individuals and aspiring entrepreneurs.

Berdi Begmenov's achievements and creative approach have made him both a businessman and a community leader. Consequently, the "TM LIMITED" brand represents not just clothing but also symbolizes new opportunities and progress.
