

Azerbaijan's Honored Artist Participates in the "Music of Peace" International Festival in Ashgabat

The "Music of Peace" International Festival held in Ashgabat was a remarkable cultural event that captivated the hearts of art lovers worldwide. Among the distinguished performers was Azerbaijan's Honored Artist Saida Sherifaliyeva, whose deep appreciation for classical music and exquisite artistry elevated the festival to new heights.

The festival was organized by Turkmenistan's Ministry of Culture with the support of Azerbaijan's Embassy in Turkmenistan. Its primary mission was to foster creative ties among performers representing various national music traditions, enhance international cooperation, and contribute to the development of classical music.

The festival featured artists from not only Azerbaijan but from various other countries, including opera singers, classical musicians, and musical ensembles such as trios, quartets, and quintets. Each performance demonstrated the cultural exchange and added to the global enrichment of music.
