

Flick decided to part ways with Barcelona's leader after the disaster against Inter.

On May 6, the second leg of the 2024/25 Champions League semi-final was played between Inter Milan and Barcelona.

The teams played at Giuseppe Meazza Stadium in Milan, with the match ending 4-3 in favor of the Nerazzurri.

You can watch the goals from this match on the Telegram channel "Sportivny Oglýadach."

According to El Nacional, Barcelona's coach Hans-Dieter Flick was disappointed with Ronald Araujo's performance in this game. Flick was shocked by the Uruguayan's mistakes and decided that Ronald no longer has a future at the Catalan club.

Flick wants Araujo to be sold, with Manchester United reportedly interested in his transfer.