

Four victories over PSG, and the Italians are in the final. Enrique has already won the Champions League.

PSG's head coach Luis Enrique has already won the Champions League, having done so with Barcelona in the 2014/15 season.

On the way to the final, Enrique had several exciting matchups.

For example, during the group stage, Barcelona had to face PSG—the club Enrique now coaches. Both matches went in favor of the Catalans, with scores of 3-2 and 3-1.

Later, Enrique's squad faced PSG again in the quarterfinals, where Barcelona secured two more wins—3-1 and 2-0.

In the final, Barcelona played against Juventus and won 3-1.

Interestingly, 10 years later, Luis Enrique has once again led his team to the final, where they will play against an Italian club.