

Namangan Flower Festival: A Magnet for Regional and International Tourists

The Flower Festival in Namangan, Uzbekistan, has drawn significant attention this year, with over 60,000 foreign tourists visiting the event. Most visitors come from neighboring countries. Kyrgyzstan sent 38,100 travelers, Kazakhstan over 10,000, and Tajikistan nearly 10,000. Additionally, the festival attracted 1,800 Russian citizens.

The festival not only showcases Uzbekistan's vibrant culture and floristry but also offers tourists a chance to enjoy stunning floral displays and a variety of cultural activities.
