

The delegation of Turkmenistan took part in the international conference “The New World Order: Geopolitical Aspects and Global Challenges”

On June 15, 2025, the delegation of Turkmenistan headed by the Chairman of the Democratic Party of Turkmenistan A.Serdarov took part in the international conference “The New World Order: Geopolitical Aspects and Global Challenges”, held in the city of Shusha, Azerbaijan Republic.

Politicians, experts and representatives of parties from such countries as Turkiye, Kazakhstan, Uzbekistan and Tajikistan took part in the forum, organized by the “New Azerbaijan Party”.

In his speech, the head of the delegation of Turkmenistan emphasized the importance of the legal status of permanent neutrality and peace-loving policy, which form the basis of Turkmenistan’s foreign policy strategy.

During the visit, meetings were held with the Deputy Chairman of the “New Azerbaijan Party” Tahir Budagov, the Head of the Department of Relations with Political Parties and Legislative Power of the Presidential Administration Adalet Veliyev, the Deputy Chairman of the Milli Mejlis of the Republic of Azerbaijan, Ziyafet Askerov and Ali Ahmedov.

Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Turkmenistan