

Honor will soon release the Magic V Flip 2 smartphone, presentation - August 21 in China. So, detailed leaks about its characteristics have already appeared.

The main display of the device is the 6.82-inch LTPO OLED with a resolution of  $2868 \times 1232$  pixels, the update frequency of 120 Hz and protection from ultra-thin glass. Inside the display, a 50 MP front camera is built -in.

The main camera for 200 MP with Aperture F/1.9 and a super -hollow lens at 50 MP with a viewing angle of  $120^\circ$  at F/2.0 were installed behind the back. The external 4-inch display is also OLED, with a resolution of  $1200 \times 1092$  pixels and 120 Hz.

Honor

The smartphone works on Snapdragon 8 Gen 3 in combination with Honor branded chips for communication and power management.

The Magic V Flip 2 – 5500 mAh with a support of 80 watts of wired and 50 watts of wireless charging. Phone dimensions: 167.1 × 75.6 × 6.9 mm in an unfolded form, 15.5 mm in the folded one, weight – 204 is a side print scanner.

It remains to wait for the price – it will become known at the presentation.