Nothing began the OS V3.5-250 801–1847 update for the Nothing Phone smartphone (3). Distribution goes gradually so that the company can track the operation of the system and quickly correct possible errors.

Now, when using the Glyph Mirror function, a photo in the Glyph Matrix style will be saved. Fixed errors with the choice of a call melody, as well as a problem with a response to calls to Telegram via Glyph.

Added the AI Superres Zoom function for zuma from 20x to 30x. Improved shutter operation time during serial shooting, autofocus and color rendering are optimized.

In the search settings, the default selection option appeared again, a mistake was fixed with the disappearance of the second symbol in a universal search. The design of the notification frame is updated.

Inhibiting the brakes when playing 4K 60FPS in the gallery. Automatic brightness changes more smoothly. The problem of turning off charging is solved when using some third -party adapters. The stability of the system is increased and the texts in the interface are improved.