

According to Uzbekistan's State Statistics Agency, Tajik investors have already established 357 enterprises in the country. Of these, 89 are joint ventures, while 268 are fully owned by businesses from Tajikistan.

The main sectors include industry, energy, logistics, and agriculture. In return, more than 70 enterprises with Uzbek capital are successfully operating in Tajikistan, including facilities producing yarn and household appliances.