

During a trade fair held in Kabul, Uzbek and Afghan entrepreneurs reached preliminary agreements on trade deals totaling $36 million.

To strengthen bilateral economic ties, the Chambers of Commerce and Industry of both countries also agreed to establish trade houses and chamber offices in Uzbekistan and Afghanistan.

These initiatives aim to expand cooperation in trade and investment and foster sustainable economic relations between the neighboring nations.