

Concerts of foreign pop singers at the Winter Games Sports Complex continued on December 28 with the exciting music of Russian singer Matvey Melnikov, known in the art world under the nickname “Mot”. Matvey Melnikov, who is famous for his wonderful works in the rap and hip-hop genres of musical art, made his debut on the Turkmen stage. His concert became an unforgettable event for music fans.

For information, Matvey Melnikov, who was born in 1990 in the Krasnodar Territory of the Russian Federation, was encouraged by his parents to play music since childhood. Thanks to their efforts, he attended various music groups. His successful graduation from general and higher education institutions with excellent results indicates his great talent. Combining his intelligence and passion for music, he achieved great fame in art.

The songs “Soprano”, “Solo”, “Mama ya v Dubai”, which brought the singer fame, caused a great stir among the audience. Songs such as “Kapkan”, “Portret”, “Peremeny — eto krasivo” were also warmly received. The songs “Sharady” and “Sluchaynosti ne sluchayny” are currently at the top of the most listened to international music charts. Such a magnificent evening of entertainment left an unforgettable impression on those who came to it.
