

On December 9, 2025, an important meeting took place in Turkmenistan's National Tourist Zone "Awaza." The Azerbaijani delegation — Vice President of the Heydar Aliyev Foundation Leyla Aliyeva and Head of the "Baku" Media Center Arzu Aliyeva — arrived in Awaza and spoke at an international consultation.

The event focused on the role of women in modern society, the promotion of gender equality, and the importance of international cooperation in achieving the Sustainable Development Goals. The participation of the Azerbaijani delegation was a clear demonstration of the strengthening of cultural, social, and strategic ties between the two countries.

During the gathering, Azerbaijan's initiatives to enhance women's social engagement, reinforce civic responsibility, and expand international cooperation were presented. In their speeches, Leyla and Arzu Aliyeva emphasized the opportunities for joint projects in education, culture, and media.

This visit opened new prospects for implementing collaborative programs and reinforcing bilateral relations, serving as a successful example of regional cooperation and cultural diplomacy.
