

On the occasion of the 30th anniversary of Turkmenistan's Permanent Neutrality, Azerbaijan's Ambassador to Turkmenistan, Gismat Gozalov, was awarded the Jubilee Medal

President of Turkmenistan Serdar Berdimuhamedov conferred the Jubilee Medal "30 Years of Neutrality of Turkmenistan" and the Commemorative Silver Badge "30 Years of Permanent Neutrality of Turkmenistan." The presentation of these high honors symbolizes the strengthening of friendly relations and cooperation between the two countries and is a source of great pride.

The medal and badge were formally presented by Mr. Rashid Meredov, Deputy Chairman of the Cabinet of Ministers and Minister of Foreign Affairs of Turkmenistan. This event is regarded not only as a personal honor but also as a testament to the strategic partnership and consolidation of mutual trust between Azerbaijan and Turkmenistan.

The 30th anniversary of Turkmenistan's Permanent Neutrality has been widely recognized internationally, serving to reinforce the principles of peace, friendship, and mutual respect among states. The awarding of these distinctions stands as evidence of the consolidation of these values, the strengthening of bilateral trust, and the advancement of regional cooperation.

On the occasion of the 30th anniversary of Turkmenistan's Permanent Neutrality, Azerbaijan's Ambassador to Turkmenistan, Gismat Gozalov, was awarded the Jubilee Medal

Ultimately, the honors bestowed by the political will of President Serdar Berdimuhamedov carry not only personal significance but also historical importance as a symbol of friendship, humanitarian collaboration, and regional partnership between Azerbaijan and Turkmenistan.