

Yesterday, December 30, in the conference hall of the Ministry of Education of our country, schoolchildren and students of higher educational institutions who won prize-winning places in prestigious international subject competitions during the International Year of Peace and Confidence, as well as teachers who prepared them for international competitions, were awarded.

They were awarded Letters of Honor from the Ministry of Education of Turkmenistan and commemorative gifts from the Central Council of the Youth Organization of Turkmenistan named after Magtymguly in a solemn atmosphere.

«THE ASHGABAT TIMES».