

Today, the 4th National Kurultai commenced its work in Bishkek. The event is attended by President Sadyr Japarov and 700 delegates representing all regions of Kyrgyzstan.

The forum will continue on December 25 and 26.

On the eve of the opening, delegates held meetings with representatives of ministries and government agencies to discuss pressing national issues.