

The National Leader of the Turkmen people, Chairman of the Halk Maslahaty of Turkmenistan Gurbanguly Berdimuhamedov, sent a congratulatory letter to the President of the Republic of Azerbaijan, Ilham Aliyev, on the occasion of his birthday.

According to APA, the Press Service of the President of Azerbaijan reported on the message. The letter notes, in particular, that under the leadership of the head of the friendly state, the Republic of Azerbaijan has achieved major successes in socio-economic development and that the standard of living continues to improve steadily.

The National Leader of the Turkmen people warmly recalled the meeting held in Gabala, emphasizing that it took place during the summit of the Organization of Turkic States. The Hero Arkadag stated: "I firmly believe that through our joint efforts, Turkmen-Azerbaijani cooperation will continue to grow and deepen for the benefit of our brotherly peoples. I would like to express my gratitude for your significant personal contribution and for the deep attention you pay to strengthening and developing bilateral relations between our countries".
