

Today, an international forum dedicated to combating disinformation began in Ankara, the capital of Türkiye, with the participation of member and observer states of the Organization of Turkic States. Representatives from Turkmenistan are actively participating in this important event.

According to information provided by the Azerbaijani news website "Report," the geography of the participants is extensive. Official representatives from Azerbaijan, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Türkiye, Uzbekistan, Hungary, Turkmenistan, and the Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus have gathered for the meeting.

The event serves as an influential cooperation platform, bringing together high-ranking information officials, media representatives, members of the scientific community, communication specialists, and journalists.

The forum, which will continue for two days, opens significant opportunities for press and communication professionals from the participating countries. As noted in the report, the forum's framework includes plans for journalists to exchange experiences, implement new joint projects, and further expand professional cooperation.
