

Today, with the participation of the Honorable President Serdar Berdimuhamedov, a solemn ceremony was held at the “Martial Arts” sports complex of the Ashgabat Olympic Village to honor young people who achieved prize-winning places in international subject Olympiads and sports competitions, along with their mentors and coaches. The event was attended by the country’s leadership, heads and staff of foreign diplomatic missions and international organizations, athletes, and students.

In his historic address, the President congratulated the youth on their achievements. Afterwards, the National Anthem of Turkmenistan was performed in honor of the winners.
