

Today, on December 17, the final stage of the music competition «Ýylyň parlak ýyldyzy - 2025» was held at the Alp Arslan National Drama Theatre of Turkmenistan. The creative contest consisted of several stages, during which the ten most talented singers were selected to compete in the final round.

The competition was organized by the Ministry of Culture of Turkmenistan in cooperation with the State Committee for Television, Radio Broadcasting and Cinematography, as well as the Central Council of the Magtymguly Youth Organization. Talented young pop singers aged 17 to 35 from all regions of the country, as well as from Ashgabat and Arkadag cities, took part in the contest.

Television viewers and radio listeners acted as judges by voting via SMS messages and phone calls, evaluating the performers' vocal and artistic skills. In the final round, the votes submitted by SMS were counted.

As a result, young talented singer Gowher Hajmyradova was declared the winner of the «Ýylyň parlak ýyldyzy - 2025» competition and was awarded a traveling trophy and a valuable prize.

In addition, Mahri Hojakova took first place, Serdar Charyyev won second place, and Dowran Shammyyev secured third place.
