

A telephone conversation took place between U.S. Secretary of State Marco Rubio and Turkmenistan's Foreign Minister Rashid Meredov

On January 30, 2026, U.S. Secretary of State Marco Rubio and U.S. Special Representative Sergio Gor held a telephone conversation with Turkmenistan's Minister of Foreign Affairs, Rashid Meredov.

During the discussion, the parties reviewed progress in strengthening regional security and promoting economic development in Central Asia.

Secretary Rubio reaffirmed the United States' commitment to expanding business ties with Turkmenistan and enhancing bilateral cooperation.

The telephone conversation was assessed as an important diplomatic step aimed at further developing relations between the United States and Turkmenistan.