

A high-level business delegation from Turkmenistan arrived in the Kingdom of Eswatini, where they were warmly received by the Minister of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation, Pholile Shakantu, and the Minister of Home Affairs, HRH Princess Lindiwe.

The reception marks a new stage in the development of relations between the two countries. The high-level participation from Eswatini reflects growing confidence in Turkmenistan's economic potential and cooperation prospects.

The delegation's visit may open new opportunities in trade, investment, industry, logistics, and the digital economy. Both sides expressed readiness to expand cooperation and showed strong interest in future joint projects.

This meeting holds particular importance as part of Turkmenistan's strategic policy to strengthen ties with African nations.
