

According to “RIA Novosti”, a vaccine named “WIN332”, developed by the Wistar Institute, has been tested on birds. As a result of the trials, virus-protecting antibodies were produced within 3 weeks.

Scientists state that the vaccine can be effective even after the very first injection.

In the future, instead of the usual 7-10 vaccinations, only 3 doses may be sufficient to create strong immunity.

«THE ASHGABAT TIMES».