

The Institute of International Relations of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Turkmenistan, with the support of the Ministry of Education and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Turkmenistan, is hosting the III International Contest for undergraduate and graduate students.

Conducted in Turkmen, English, and Russian, this event aims to promote the international initiatives of neutral Turkmenistan, disseminate the “Dialogue is the Guarantee of Peace” philosophy among youth, and strengthen friendly ties with global scientific and educational centers.

Teams of 1 to 5 students from national and foreign higher education institutions are invited to participate. As the primary requirement, participants will answer 100 test questions covering a wide range of topics, including international relations, diplomacy, history, culture, ecology, and sustainable development goals. Winners will be determined by a jury based on the highest scores.

The winners will be awarded gold, silver, and bronze medals, as well as diplomas of respective degrees and valuable gifts. As part of the contest, the organizers have also planned special cultural and orientation tours for foreign guests. Detailed information about the contest and application forms are available on the institute’s official website:
