

The Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs A. Gurbanov had a meeting with Ambassador of Australia to Turkmenistan

On March 12, 2026, a meeting was held between the Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs of Turkmenistan A. Gurbanov and the Ambassador of Australia to Turkmenistan (with residence in Moscow) John William Geering.

During the meeting, the parties discussed the current state and prospects for the development of bilateral relations between Turkmenistan and Australia. Particular attention was paid to strengthening the political and diplomatic dialogue and expanding cooperation in trade-economic and cultural-humanitarian spheres.

The interlocutors also exchanged views on topical issues of the international and regional agenda. In particular, the situation in the Middle East was touched upon. At the same time, the importance of uniting efforts to ensure peace, security, and stability in the region was emphasized.

Taking the opportunity, Ambassador John William Geering thanked the Turkmen side for its assistance in the transit of Australian citizens traveling from Iran.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the parties confirmed their readiness to continue a constructive dialogue aimed at further strengthening the friendly relations between Turkmenistan and Australia.
