

Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs of Turkmenistan met with the Commissioner of the Immigration Service of the Republic of Korea

On April 7, 2026, a meeting was held between the delegation of Turkmenistan, headed by Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs A. Gurbanov, and the Commissioner of the Immigration Service of the Republic of Korea, Cha Young-Ho. During the talks, which were held in a constructive and business-like atmosphere, the sides discussed the current state and prospects of cooperation between the two countries in the field of migration and consular affairs.

Within the framework of the meeting, the Turkmen side put forward a number of proposals aimed at creating favorable conditions for mutual travel of citizens of the two countries, as well as ensuring reliable protection of their rights and legitimate interests.

Particular attention was paid to issues related to the improvement of the legal and contractual framework of bilateral cooperation in the migration sphere.

Following the meeting, the sides confirmed their mutual interest in continuing a constructive dialogue, noting that its further development meets the interests of both states and corresponds to the high level of bilateral relations.
